

Bow River Capital Appoints Greg Hiatrides as Chief Executive Officer; Founder Blair Richardson to Serve as Chairman

DENVER, CO – October 15, 2026 – Bow River Capital ("Bow River"), a Denver-based alternative asset manager, announced today that Greg Hiatrides, Head of Bow River's Private Equity team, has been appointed Chief Executive Officer. Hiatrides succeeds Blair Richardson, who founded the firm and has led it as Chief Executive Officer for 23 years. Richardson will transition to Bow River's Chairman, continuing to forge investor relationships and supporting the firm's strategic direction.

Under Richardson's leadership, Bow River expanded into a multi-strategy investment platform spanning private equity, private credit, real estate, and venture capital; the firm offers investors both closed end and evergreen strategies.

Hiatrides, who joined Bow River in 2015 and has more than 20 years of investment and advisory experience, built the firm's highly successful private equity platform and has led some of its largest and most complex transactions. Hiatrides started his investment career in New York; prior to joining Bow River, he worked at KPMG Corporate Finance (formerly St. Charles Capital).

"I have often said that Bow River should be a forever firm, and today we're announcing an important step in making that a reality," said Richardson. "It is the right time, and Greg is the right leader to move our business forward. He brings a pragmatic, effective commitment to investment performance, a sound grasp of risk management and, most importantly, a deep appreciation of the fiduciary responsibility we have to our investors."

"I am honored to step into this role and grateful to Blair and our talented team at Bow River for building a firm with such a strong foundation," said Hiatrides. "Our number one priority remains investment excellence, encompassing both the financial and relational value we produce for our limited partners and portfolio partners. We look forward to evolving Bow River's recognized standing as a leading, scaled boutique alternative asset manager – providing unique access to the lower middle market across complementary fund strategies."

About Bow River Capital

Bow River Capital is a Denver-based alternative asset manager investing across private equity, private credit, real estate, and venture capital. For more than two decades, the firm has partnered with lower middle market management teams and property owners to build enduring businesses and properties with a focus on the Rodeo Region, a geographic footprint encompassing 14 states in the Rocky Mountain West and Southwest. Bow River is guided by a commitment to investment excellence, disciplined underwriting and close alignment with its investors.

Learn more at www.BowRiverCapital.com